DECLARATION OF OVERSEAS STUDENT FEE INCOME

Please complete the following overseas fee income declaration by indicating your relevant coverage and your estimated total overseas student fee income for the period indicated below.

Overseas fee income is defined under section 7 of the ESOS Act to cover the following:

Course money received by a provider, directly or indirectly, from:

- (a) an overseas student or intending overseas student or
- (b) another person who pays the money on behalf of an overseas student or intending overseas student for a course that the provider is providing, or offering to provide, to the student.

For the purposes of the above definition, money received for a course includes:

- (a) tuition fees and
- (b) any amount received by the provider that the provider is to pay, on behalf of the student, to a registered health benefits organization (within the meaning of the National Health Act 1953) and
- (c) any other amount that the student had to pay the provider, directly or indirectly, in order to undertake the course.

Note: Overseas student fee income is the income arising from course fees paid by a person (whether within or outside Australia) that holds a student visa.
